UZUN ALI, SHAME AND SALVATION is a family story of Cyprus as it was at the end of the 19th century... It is a world of Zaptiehs (police), bandits, Agas (landlords) and divided communities... told as a story of family members, in three generations over 130 years, as they lived, loved and struggled in Ottoman, British, and the War years, through decades of violence and the short-lived independence in 1960. The bittersweet story of the Uzun Ali family unfolds in such diverse places, as Canada, England, Turkey, Uganda and Liberia but the glue that binds all is Cyprus.

What some literary critics said about UZUN ALI, SHAME AND SALVATION:

"What a great story; history, social, political and personal”
Nancy Hussein-Ridge, Edith Cowan University, Perth, Australia.

"Beautifully interwoven stories of many loves and wars... set in the most beautiful island of Eastern Mediterranean”
Lale Erdogan, Host of RadicalOttoman.com, Ottawa, Canada.

"A beautiful multicultural story in British Cyprus”
Gianclay Solano, E. Mediterranean University, Gazi Magusa, N. Cyprus.

"Easy and fun to read…”
Nady Zeratli, Editor and Writer, Selma, North Cyprus.

Ozay MEHMET was born in Nicosia in 1938. He is married and has three sons. He lives with wife Karen in Ottawa, Canada and part of the year in North Cyprus. He is an economist and a Professor Emeritus, Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada.