eTutoring is possible through a collaboration between the Office of Academic Innovation (OAI) and the PSU Learning Center (TLC).

All scheduling, available peer tutors and other support managed by the Learning Center.

See reverse side or visit <http://www.pdx.edu/tutoring/etutoring> for step-by-step instructions

Frequently Asked Questions about eTutoring at PSU:

What is eTutoring? eTutoring allows current PSU students to receive tutoring online from PSU students who also work 1:1 with students in the Learning Center.

How do I log into eTutoring?

1. Find eTutoring through your D2L course shell or follow the instructions at:

<http://www.pdx.edu/tutoring/etutoring>

2. Click on the large blue box at the top for "Student Login."

DO NOT USE THE LINKS ON THE LEFT SIDE - THESE ARE FOR TUTORS.

3. Enter your Odin login username and password
4. Begin your session by selecting "eChat"

How does eTutoring work?

For live sessions, see the schedule on the other side and login during these times

You can chat, or communicate via mic and/or camera as well as screen share

If no tutor is available when you login, leave a question using "eQuestions". An eTutor will get back to you within 48 hours

If my Odin login isn't working, what should I do? Call OIT at 503.725.4357

What if I have technical trouble with eTutoring.org?

Technical support may be accessed through the support links at the bottom the eTutoring site

We recommend Safari or Mozilla Firefox web browsers. Internet Explorer may be problematic eTutoring.org will function better if popups are allowed during your session

I'm not enrolled at PSU. Where else can I go?

The Multnomah County Library free online tutoring. multcolib.org/resource/live-homework-help-tutorcom daily 2 pm-10 pm, 503.988.5234
