THE DARS AUDIT

The DARS audit is what the Office of Graduate Studies (OGS) uses to evaluate graduate student progress toward degree. Information on how to interpret the DARS audit is available on our website at pdx.edu/ogs/dars. You are responsible for consulting with your academic adviser and department regarding successful degree progress. If you have any questions about your DARS audit that your adviser and/or department cannot answer, please contact OGS at 503-725-8410 or graddars@pdx.edu.

Comment [18]: This course was waived. It should appear on the Degree Planning Form as such. The exception could have been entered by the adviser through the online system at the time of approval.

Comment [19]: This form lists all the field areas and to what extent each has been fulfilled. You may alert grad studies as to the particular field area of the student prior to the reports being sent and therefore read the form with more ease. An e-mail list of students names, IDs and field areas is sufficient to make this happen.

COURSES NOT USED TO MEET DEGREE REQUIREMENTS Courses that fall into this category have not been used in the degree program. This may be because you have taken extra coursework, you have taken coursework that does not apply, or there are courses here that need something before they can be used (e.g. an incomplete course must be completed and graded, a preadmission course must be approved for use by the department and requested to be used via the Graduate DARS Exception Request form, etc.).
NOTE:
Any Graduate Assistant courses (501A/601A/509A/609A) on your transcript will appear in this section. These credits can NEVER be applied to a degree or graduate certificate program at PSU.

The report is intended as an advising tool to assist students in evaluating progress toward a PSU baccalaureate degree, minor, or certificate. While every effort has been made to ensure accuracy, errors may occur. Thus, it is the student's responsibility to verify the information contained in this audit and to comply with all PSU graduation requirements. Failure to satisfactorily complete any in-progress courses may change the audit of degree requirements.

Please note this audit is not a promise or guarantee of progress toward a degree, minor or certificate.
Certification of completion of academic requirements is subject to department and University approval.
