AGENDA:

- New Class approved, WLL 371 Global Citizenship in Professional Contexts
 - create advertising materials
 - assign instructors
- Advising:
 - Advising during COVID-19 disruption: The academic and career advisors at Portland State are committed to providing services to our students, especially during this challenging time. While their physical locations are closed, staff are working remotely. Advisors continue to be accessible via email and are available for phone and video conference appointments. They are also responsive to phone and email communication.
 - Shayna's advice: Meet with advisees at least once a year, talk about year+ long plans, write "tentative" on plans.
 - Advisors can enter advising notes into a student's account via Banweb, Faculty Services >> Navigate

Advising Resources posted on WLL website, includes:

- How to help students find out who their Pathway advisor is.
- Info about our Pathway: Language, Culture, and Meaning Pathway.
- Role of the Pathway advisors.
- Important rules about Catalog Year.
- Info on how to enter DARS exception requests.
